Quote by Gary Snyder

Variety is the essence of life —
as old as time, omnipresent
in our natural environment.

You have ants of microscopic proportions,
and sparrows that soar overhead.

You have lotuses that bloom in muddy waters,
and your towering banyans.

You have langurs that find strength in numbers,
and also your lone wolves.

An illustration of a woman with dark hair in a ponytail, wearing a light green t-shirt and white shorts, running towards the right. She is carrying a pink bag with a white flower design. A brown dog with a white collar is running alongside her. The background is a solid olive green. In the top corners, there are stylized tree branches with green leaves. Two white birds with dark wings are flying in the upper left and right. In the bottom left, there is a small pond with red lotus flowers and green lily pads. A large, dark green tree with a brown trunk is on the right side. The overall style is a flat, modern illustration.

And then you have people —
of different kinds, from different places,
with different habits.

Drawing from this diversity, we wanted to imagine a place where creatures of all kinds, live together synergistically, enriching life for everyone.

A home with a unit for every kind of unit —

whether you're a pack of four
looking for a lively
neighbourhood,

a pair of
wise owls building your next nest,

or an industrious
beaver that wants a private lodge in the lap of nature.

An artistic rendering of a modern, multi-story residential building named Estate 361. The building features a curved facade with multiple balconies, some of which are covered in lush green ivy. The ground floor has large glass windows. The building is surrounded by trees and greenery. In the foreground, there are stylized green bushes and a small brown deer-like animal. The top of the image has decorative green and blue patterns with small white flowers. The text "Many habits, one habitat." is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Many habits, one habitat.

Welcome to Estate 361 — a vibrant ecosystem for every lifestyle.

INTRODUCTION TO ESTATE 361 | HARERA Registration No.: RC/REP/HARERA/GGM/1012/744/2025/115 | HARERA Website: <https://haryanarera.gov.in>

Estate 361 is rooted in a proven insight —
that humans live better when they're closer to nature.

Research shows that proximity to nature has a positive impact on your...

mind,

Exposure to natural settings can improve your working memory, cognitive flexibility and attentional control.

Nurtured by nature \(2020\)

body,

Improved access to green spaces is linked to better heart and lung health, increased physical activity and lower obesity rates.

Urban Green Spaces and Health: WHO Report \(2016\)

& soul

Regular interaction with natural environments has been linked to reduced stress, anxiety and depression.

Spending at least 120 minutes a week in nature is associated with good health and wellbeing \(2019\)

So we built a home that feels like having a forest in your backyard.

The Forest

Our development is anchored by the Forest — a lush space offering moments of restfulness, reflection and community interaction. The Forest is a celebration of Indian ecosystems, reintroducing native plant and animal species such as banyans and sparrows, and including features like open meadows, lush hillocks and cosy seating nooks.

ARTISTIC RENDERING

A celebration of Indian ecosystems.

Spread across 1,50,000 sq.ft, the Forest is home to over 1000 native plants across 50+ species, carefully chosen for their ability to thrive in Gurugram's climate while enriching the community's everyday life.

The selection of species such as Neem, Banyan, Peepal, Jamun, Arjun, Amaltas, Kachnar and Kadamba reflects our philosophy: they are indigenous, demand less water, actively purify the air and provide dense shade that lowers ambient temperatures in scorching summers. Together, they nurture biodiversity by attracting birds, bees and butterflies, ensuring the forest becomes a thriving ecosystem in itself.

Species* at the estate include:

- Neem (Azadirachta indica)
- Banyan (Ficus benghalensis)
- Pilkhan (Ficus infectoria)
- Jamun (Syzygium cumini)
- Arjun (Terminalia arjuna)
- Amaltas (Cassia fistula)
- Kachnar (Bauhinia variegata)
- Kadamba (Anthocephalus cadamba)
- Semal (Bombax malabaricum)
- Kanak Champa (Pterospermum pterocarpum)
- Resham Rui (Chorisia speciosa)
- Pride of India/Jarul (Lagerstroemia flos reginae)
- Champa (Plumeria alba)
- Amla (Phyllanthus emblica)
- Aam (Mangifera indica)

*Planned provision at the estate and subject to change.

Learning Matters

Learning Matters is a dynamic, child-centred educational organisation for children, parents and educators. Our educational ecosystem is built around the simple yet powerful idea that children deserve more than just preparation for school — they deserve a childhood that's respected, joyful and full of meaning.

Created with the vision of celebrating and nurturing children so they can thrive and meaningfully contribute to the world, Learning Matters' educational philosophy is rooted in bringing the neuroscience of learning to classroom practices.

Our values

Child-Centred

Our work, our spaces and our aspirations are all centered around the child.

Excellence & Beauty

We strive for excellence and beauty in all we do.

Seva Bhav

We view our work as service, and approach all we do with love and respect.

Joyful Community

We recognise that it takes a village to raise a child — and only if it's filled with joy can children grow up as joyful beings.

Founder's Vision

Ms. Sonya Philip, Founder and CEO of Learning Matters, has a mission to ensure all children experience success and have the tools to become “protagonists of their learning.”

Partnership with Max Group (2020)

In 2020, Learning Matters partnered with the Max Group to build a shared vision for education – one that centres the emotional and developmental well-being of both children and their families. As Tara Singh Vachani shared: “We offer an engaging, enriching and wholesome environment to unwind, learn and foster friendships – needs integral to the well-being of children and parents, and we want to be proactive in meeting them.”

All the ways we show up for children:

Thrive (18 months – 18 years)

Designed to address learning and developmental challenges with success-based strategies.

Early Years (18 months – 4 years)

A play-based preschool where wonder, joy and learning come alive every day.

The Learning Matters Academy

Workshops, courses and certifications for educators, parents, caregivers and more.
